Discuss IT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain.

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

These issues have always been around, they have now just gotten worse. Some people might not be happy with the outcomes but they are the ones choosing their president. Citizens of the U.S. need to select a president that corresponds with their beliefs. The problem of people rebelling against each other is already happening all around the world. There are people protesting and boycotting in the streets and people fighting each other to show that their beliefs in a good president are better. There are other topics that are very controversial. For example, gun control and immigration. President Trump has already started building a wall to stop illegal immigration.
